— Exodus 20:2a, 3

KEEP HOLY THE SABBATH

There's no better way to deepen our Lenten practice than to review the Ten Commandments (not the movie, the book). The first three, having to do with our right relationship to God, get the most ink. The one we busy people probably have the most problem with is keeping holy the Sabbath.

If we take this commandment literally, babies will go undiapered and dishes will stay on the table, or perhaps meals will not be served. The sick will go unattended and nothing that has anything to do with physical labor will be done. Is mental labor really work? How about changing that dirty diaper (poor baby!)?

We need to depend on God to discern how to observe real Sabbath time in our lives. The point of this commandment is that God has given us a great gift: one whole day per week when we are free to rest, worship God, sing, feast, love, and rejoice. As Psalm 19 proclaims: "The law of the LORD is perfect, / refreshing the soul" (19:8). Our Sabbath rest is a great gift, to be received from God with joy, not with nitpicking.

Bishop Provost's Lenten Pastoral Letter PART 3:

Man rejects that God defines what is good and evil. The temptation is for Man, both male and female, to determine what is good and evil. In eating of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, Adam and Eve, and consequently their descendants, define for themselves what can and cannot be done. When they do this, they die. In other words, they are separated from God. Physical death is a tribute to that separation. Physical death is to be feared, because there is no hope. How can hope exist if Man is his own god? In effect, Man says, "God is not going to tell me what to do." It is obvious today that Man still tries to define what is good or evil, using his own secular definitions. What the modern world has not already accomplished by denying that sin exists, it seeks to achieve by redefining good and evil according to its own standards. The result of this thinking is the cause of much of the chaos we see in the world around us. Mercifully, God does not leave us alone in our self-centeredness.

7TH ANNUAL MIKE HALAY MEMORIAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

We are anxiously awaiting the golf outing that kicks off Spring in Southwest Louisiana! These generous parents, Cathy/Mike Heinen; Vesta/Mark Johnston; and Susan/Bryan Vincent, give of their time and talents to this worthy fundraiser, which benefits our school's trust each year. Our very own OLQH community of parents and friends contribute by entering teams, or providing sponsorships in some capacity to help make this event one which is highly anticipated every year.

An event like this would not be complete without an Auction item to be purchased. Visit the office and view the fabulous Callaway golf bag which just accompanied our own golf pro, parent Mike Heinen, on the PGA tour (most recently back from Pebble Beach!) We have an opening bid of $200, and we will continue our silent auction until tee-off time at the tournament. The beautiful bag is not only genuine leather, but autographed by Mike Heinen himself!

If you are interested in being a sponsor for this event, or entering a team, it is not too late. Please see Lisa Jakel or Diane Jackson with any question, or call the school office at 477-7349.

OLQH BENEFIT CONCERT

Elisha Eagle will sing Thursday, March 26 at 7 pm at the Civic Center. Tickets for the concert purchased at the OLQH School Office will benefit the OLQH School Special Education Department.

Even your friends and neighbors can purchase their tickets at the OLQH School Office, instead of going downtown! Be sure and pick your tickets up at the school in order to benefit the Special Ed Department! Should be a GREAT time!

Msgr. Greig and Fr. Mancuso are leading a pilgrimage [spiritual trip] In The Footsteps of Paul. In addition to seeing the sites, those who travel with them will visit the places from which St. Paul wrote most of his Epistles. The trip is scheduled for September 19-29 and includes a three day cruise of the Greek Islands. The cost of the trip is $3,640 from New York; the flight from New Orleans will be added in mid-March. For a brochure, call Msgr. Greig or Lois at 439-7400 or Fr. Mancuso at 439-2646.
